

- 45 years of professional golf experience
- Recipient of first full-ride Golf Scholarship ever granted to a female by the University of Kansas
- Master's Degree with an emphasis in Sports Psychology and Adapted Physical Education, University of Kansas
- Master's Thesis written on study of the relationship of visual skills to putting skills among Junior Golfers
- Professional Golfer- European and Asian Tours
- Conducted golf clinics internationally for sponsors
- Nancy's lifelong mentor in golf was Kansas City legend Stan Thirsk
- Taught Adapted PE to children with special needs for 25 years

Nancy Hoins is passionate about teaching golf! Focus is on the five basic keys of golf: grip, alignment, posture, rhythm and balance. Golf lessons will cover short game as well as long game- chipping, pitching, putting, iron play, driving, sand play, and how to play in a scramble. Learn how to play golf with etiquette, safety, and the understanding of the rules. Emphasis is on having fun and learning to play a lifetime game! Nancy's vast experience uniquely qualifies her to teach golf and enhance the skills of any golfer regardless of their abilities.