General Information

SKIESUnlimited is a part of the Army's Division of Child and Youth Services under the Directorate of Family and Morale, Welfare and Recreation (Family and MWR). Our mission is to provide the children and youth of Fort Leavenworth with a variety of classes taught by qualified, imaginative, and dedicated instructors, creating experiences of value, excellence, and enjoyment. In addition, all Fort Leavenworth CYS SKIESUnlimited instructors have had local and national background checks, training in CPR, First Aid, Child Abuse Awareness, Reporting and Prevention, Guidance, Child Developmental Guidelines, and Safety.

Eligible Patrons: Eligible patrons for the SKIES program include children and youth whose sponsors are one of the following: active-duty military, Fort Leavenworth DoD civilian employee (GS, NSPS, NAF, and DOD Contractor), Activated National Guard or Reservist, and retired military.

Registration Information: Registration for Child & Youth Services takes place at Parent Central, which is in the Resiliency Center, 600 Thomas Avenue (Building 198). All students MUST be registered at Parent Central before enrolling in any SKIES programs. Registration is valid for 12 months and may be used for all Fort Leavenworth Child & Youth Service programming. The following information is required for registration: names and phone numbers of sponsor and spouse, two local emergency contacts, immunization records, current military email address, and a physical/health assessment. Patrons are given up to 30 days to submit local emergency points of contact and physicals.

Enrolling for SKIES Classes: Once you have completed the registration process, you may enroll/sign up for classes or programs at any Child & Youth Services location. You may also enroll by phone (684-3207) or by using the WebTrac online system <https://webtrac.mwr.army.mil/webtrac/leavenworthcyms.html> (user ID and password are available from Parent Central). Please be aware that enrollment is on a first-come, first-served basis. To ensure that your child retains his/her slot in a class, it is highly recommended that you enroll early in continuing sessions. Lesson fees are not charges for holidays or breaks.

Payment Policy: Payment for SKIES classes is due at enrollment. Your child's name will be placed on the roster only when payment has been made. We accept payment by cash, check, or credit/debit card. Second child discounts do not apply to any SKIES programs per Department of Army CYS Fee Policy.

Makeup Classes, Cancellation and Refund Policy: Refunds are NOT authorized for child illnesses, cancellations due to weather, family trips, or withdrawal after the class has started. Make up classes will be offered if possible, depending on the instructor's schedule. Refunds may be granted for extenuating circumstances such as prolonged absence due to illness or PCS orders. If you feel this is the case, a refund may be requested in writing to the SKIES Program Director. In the event a class is cancelled due to instructor unavailability, a makeup class will be offered, but no refund will be given.

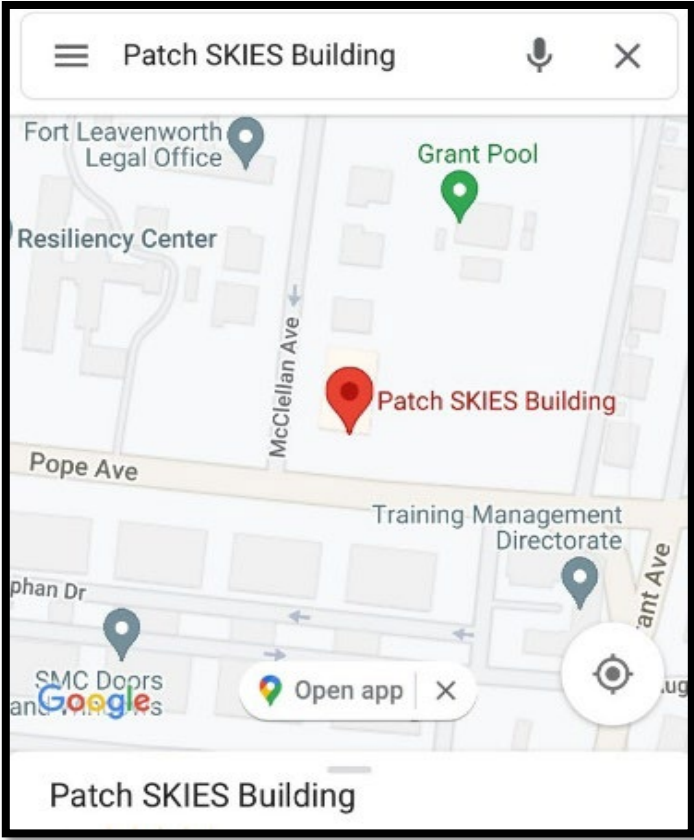

IMPORTANT NOTICE: RESCUE MEDS (e.g., inhalers, Epi-Pens) will NOT be administered by SKIES instructors. If a child requires an inhaler or Epi-Pen and is not authorized by a physician to self-administer, the parent is required to remain on site during the SKIES class.

Parent & Student Safety

Instructors will be using the intermission times between class sessions to disinfect the equipment and areas used by the students. We will need your assistance in keeping classes and waiting areas safe.

- If you or your student is coughing and not feeling well, please stay home for everyone's safety. All efforts will be made to get the class made up.
- Please assist your child in washing their hands and then wash your hands upon entering the facility.
- A parent is required to wait in designated seating areas inside or outside on the grounds of the facility for the safety of your child.

Let's work together.

Curtain Call 950160-03

Instructor: Amy Bell

Ages: Youth grades 1st-12th

Cost: $240

Location: Old Patton Auditorium

Curtain Call is Fort Leavenworth's Children and Youth Musical Theatre Program. This fun and educational program allows children to engage in imaginative play and develop higher-level skills such as problem solving, team building, time management, communication, and critical thinking. It encourages students to grow their singing, acting, and dancing skills while making new friends and building their confidence. Over 12 weeks, participants will learn the basic principles of putting on a musical; including how to audition, being cast in a show, learning theatre terminology and etiquette, as well as singing, acting, and dancing. The culmination of their hard work (and fun) is a full-blown production, performed in front of friends and family!

TIMELINE for Elf the Musical, JR.

IMPORTANT DATES:

November 26 and 28	NO REHEARSALS
Oct 19 and 16	Saturday Rehearsals 9am-Noon
November 21	Costume Parade

There are spaces for 30 participants. Selections are made by a lottery if more than 30 have signed up, the rest are placed on a waitlist. Curtain Call is a large commitment of time and responsibility, please take that into consideration.

Play is often talked about as if it were a relief from serious learning. But for children play is serious learning. Play is really the work of childhood.
