Parent & Student Safety

We will need your assistance in keeping classes and waiting areas safe.

- If you or your student isn't feeling well, please stay home. We will work to get a make-up lesson later.
- Please assist your child in washing their hands and then wash your hands upon entering the facility.
- Please keep things tidy, the infants and toddlers put things in their mouth. It is very much a safety concern.
- A parent is required to wait in designated seating areas inside or outside on the grounds of the facility for the safety of your child.
- Please encourage your youth to use the restroom prior to class. It allows more time participating in class for all students.
- Please keep the doors closed, if it's open shut it. It's for the safety of the children.

Teamwork makes the dream work.

Brazilian jiu-jitsu (Portuguese: *jiu-jitsu brasileiro* [ʒiw ˈʒitsu brazɨˈleju, ʒu -]), often abbreviated to BJJ, is a self-defense martial art and combat sport based on grappling, ground fighting, and submission holds. It is primarily a ground-based fighting style and focuses on taking one's opponent down to the ground, gaining a dominant position, and using a number of techniques to force them into submission via joint locks, chokeholds, or compression locks.

BJJ revolves around the concept that a smaller, weaker person can successfully defend themselves against a bigger, stronger opponent by using leverage and weight distribution, taking the fight to the ground and using a number of holds and submissions to defeat them. Sparring, commonly referred to as "rolling" within the BJJ community, and live drilling plays a major role in the practitioner's development. In contrast to some other martial arts BJJ can be practiced both using a gi uniform or not which is know as 'no-gi BJJ', for this purpose rash guards are used. The International Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Federation (IBJJF) is the main governing body of the martial art, establishing the rules and general guidelines, as well as promoting competitions and training of referees. BJJ can also be used as a method of promoting physical fitness, building character, and as a way of life. -from Wikipedia
